

Kevin the Mountie

Written By Michael Sun

Kevin Donaldson (1934- 2006) was a Mountie who lived in Lancaster and he was the best Mountie in the United Kingdom. He has a very good speed of 800 Meters Per Minute which most of the villains did not have, he has tactics forcing villains to throw in the towel and The Element of surprise because of his speed, he can surprise someone behind and then put him on the ground and cuff him up. Not only did he subjugate the villains, he also helped the poor by giving $5000 each since he was rich, rich, rich.

When he was a child, his life was doing consistently well. However, in 1939, when he was 5. WW2 broke out when the truculent Nazis invaded Poland with the Soviets, this encouraged him to do an occupation that would subjugate the villains using some of Napoleon's tactics to defeat very single villain in the UK, and from 1957-1974 he caught ten thousand bad guys and some to exile, some being an inmate and some sentenced in disparage. People in the United Kingdom felt that Kevin is handsome and intelligent.

But then one day, in 1986, there was a supervillain causing destruction in the UK and no police force has ever stopped him from causing dire across the island. "I can beat this vitriolic imbecile, but we need to them up to do it, he could be fervent, but he is not as intelligent as our Mounties, use your weapons as your shields, and turn yourself into Steel. Do you understand?" He said loudly. "Yes, Mountie Donaldson." Replied the Mounties loudly.

Now with their plan decided, they should go incognito against the villain. Thankfully, one of the Mounties, Officer Dickinson had a freezing gun to drive bad guys insane. So he decided to give it to Kevin in order to take umbrage to the villain.

After a few months of waiting, they finally found him stealing onions and murdering the seller. Then, they decided to distract him by beating him at his own game. The villain and two Mounties battled in swords, having sixty rounds with no clear sight of victory. Stealing the opportunity, Kevin tried to shrink him, but he dodged, then he tried to out him into a hydrogen pool, that didn't work either. Finally, the virtuoso froze him surreptitiously with the freezing gun Dickinson gave to him and get him cuffed (He did this by breaking the ice of his hands and cuffed him up.)

In the headquarters, the villain was sentenced to twenty-three years in the most secured prison with no parole, and in 1987, London celebrated the defeat of their most dangerous dark evil in British History so far.
