

Reminiscence of an Eminent Figure

Michael Sun

The initiation started, five years ago
During the excruciating pain of the pandemic.
I saw the female spirit, lighthearted and merciful worthy of the secrets you missed.

You were always magnanimous
When an ally struggles to meet the solution.
I see your action, every day
In which I was hallucinated by the vision.
No one else could reach your concert stage.

Then came the event,
You were delighted to join, cursed with cognizance
But it, still not sufficient
To meet the passing line.

Your recurrence appeared, two years ago
When your pedagogue preference did the mock.
This time, the cognizance met proficiency
And you were in.

Eminent as you were in academics
Still not in touch with reality.
The struggle still drove on the road,
until your mind was out of the box.

In the epoch of progress,
I see your desire and sage.
No win from the last moment,
My nail in the coffin,
would not have poked the opposition.

Now I show lament for your loss,
After the captain of your soul made the decision.
Yet then, you still shaped prosperity
for future comrades to observe.

Your soul never leaves mine,
and mine never leaves yours.
And it will be fixed.
Reminisce of your sagaciousness.
Reminisce of your sagaciousness.
